Dear Mr. Muellner:

Director
James Hoffman

Thank you so very much for the $4,483.00 contribution to the Thomas J. Peltin Destroyer Museum Grant Program. We can only imagine the emotions and sadness associated with disbanding your reunion association. Your decision to make Tin Can Sailors, Inc. a recipient from your Association treasury is deeply appreciated.

Director
Dick Kinsley

Executive Director
Terry Miller

Please extend to all the members of the USS Sproston Reunion Group, our grateful appreciation for your marvelous donation. We hope that your crew members will join us for our next national reunion in Valley Forge, PA.

The cost of operating and maintaining a destroyer as a museum/memorial ship is far greater than most people realize. Paint, metal, insurance, utilities, etc; they all add up to far more than ticket sales can ever be expected to cover. The support of ship associations is vital to the survival of these ships that serve as memorials to all destroyers and those who served aboard them.

On behalf of our destroyer museum ships, I once again thank the USS Sproston Reunion Group for their generosity.

Most sincerely,
